

EMERGING LEADERS US-CHINA STUDY DELEGATION

Become a global citizen.

The Congressional Black Caucus Foundation, Incorporated has partnered with the 100K Strong Foundation to offer an exciting new China study abroad program. The U.S.-China Study Delegation, as the program is called, provides African-American students with the opportunity to experience Chinese culture and learn Mandarin during a two-week visit to China.

Through this program, the CBCF is working to increase career and study options involving US-China relations, expanding opportunities for African Americans in an era of increasing globalization.

Gain cultural perspective.

This study-abroad experience offers diverse educational activities and excursions taking place over two weeks in Beijing, Hangzhou and Shanghai. Students attend lectures on Chinese history and culture, US-China relations, and Chinese economic development.

Students also participate in cultural activities such as a tour of the Summer Palace and the Great Wall, a visit to the Xixi Wetland Museum, workshops on Chinese paintings and Chinese culinary art.

How to apply?

Interested students must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale with declared majors and relevant coursework in Natural sciences, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics, Energy development, Trade and Business.

Program dates

June 25 - July 13 (STEM students)

July 9 - July 27 (business and trade students)
