

2019/20 RESEARCH TO IMPACT

A colloquium series organized with Haas Institute-affiliated faculty to share leading edge research and spark generative exchange and collaboration on issues of diversity and inclusion.

ALL 2019/20 RESEARCH TO IMPACT EVENTS WILL BE DEDICATED TO A YEAR-LONG COMMEMORATION OF THE 400-YEAR ANNIVERSARY OF THE FIRST AFRICAN SLAVES FORCIBLY BROUGHT TO THE ENGLISH COLONIES IN NORTH AMERICA, AND THE ENDURING IMPACTS OF THAT HISTORY TODAY.

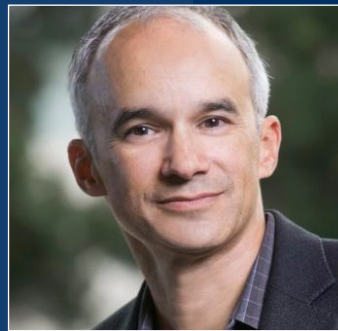

FALL SPEAKER SERIES:

SEPT 12
IBRAM X KENDI
American University
Co-organized with Borealis Philanthropy and Northern California Grantmakers

SEPT 26
MONICA WHITE
University of Wisconsin, Madison
Co-organized with the Center for Research on Social Change and the College of Natural Resources

OCT 11
IAN HANEY LOPEZ
UC Berkeley

OCT 17
RUHA BENJAMIN
Princeton University
Co-organized with Center for Science, Technology, Medicine and Society and Citrus Policy Lab

OCT 23
JUDITH CARNEY
UCLA
Co-organized with Dept of Geography's 23rd Sauer Memorial Lecture

ADDITIONAL FALL PROGRAMMING:

SEPT 11
Film Screening
Gina's Journey: The Search for William Grimes
A film screening and conversation with the producers Regina Mason and Sean Durant

OCT 10
Film Screening
The Long Shadow
A film screening and conversation with John Powell and Frances Causey

SPRING 2020 PREVIEW:

February 21
Deirdre Cooper Owens, Queens College

March 6
Elise C. Boddie, Rutgers Law School

March 13
Jenifer Barclay, University at Buffalo (SUNY)

April 3
C. Riley Snorton, University of Chicago

ALL EVENTS FREE & OPEN TO PUBLIC / WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBLE

DETAILS ON ALL EVENTS AT 400years.berkeley.edu